

MODERN SLAVERY AND HUMAN TRAFFICKING STATEMENT

Slavery and human trafficking remain to be some of the most abhorrent crimes in modern-day society that continue to impact people from all over the world. Wynn Mayfair fully supports the UK Government's commitment to eradicate these crimes, mitigate and identify risks, support the victims, and prosecute perpetrators to the full extent of the law. Everyone is responsible for being alert to the risks, however small. In a demonstration of this support and as a socially responsible corporate citizen, Wynn Mayfair has implemented a number of mitigating measures to identify and report suspicions of modern slavery, particularly in contracted services where the risk of modern slavery may be greater. Ultimately, in the application of this policy, the expectation is that all Wynn Mayfair employees report their concerns, which are followed up and acted upon as appropriate.

This statement is made pursuant to section 54(1) of the Modern Slavery Act 2015 and constitutes Wynn Mayfair's Modern Slavery and Human Trafficking Statement for the financial year (FY) 2026¹.

relationships and to implementing and enforcing effective systems and controls to ensure slavery and human trafficking are not taking place anywhere in the business and supply chains.

Due Diligence Processes for Modern Slavery and Human Trafficking

To further support Wynn Mayfair's initiative to identify and mitigate the potential risk of modern slavery and human trafficking infiltrating our business and impacting our communities, Wynn Mayfair:

- Operates a controlled licensed premise with documented processes, surveillance and audit frameworks;
- Where appropriate builds long-standing relationships with local suppliers and sets a culture of ethical and proper business behaviour;
- Sets the expectation with its suppliers to similarly take a strong stance against slavery and human trafficking and conduct appropriate due diligence to ensure that these activities are not occurring within their businesses; and
- Encourage the reporting of concerns and the protection of whistleblowers in accordance with Wynn Mayfair's Whistleblowers Policy.

Supplier Adherence to Our Values

Wynn Mayfair has a zero-tolerance of slavery and human trafficking and accordingly expects all suppliers and contractors engaged by the business to share, comply with and champion these values.

Awareness

To ensure a high level of understanding of the risks of modern slavery and human trafficking, Wynn Mayfair promotes awareness to relevant members of staff, suppliers, contractors, and the Wynn Resorts Board of Directors and is committed to developing appropriate levels of training to support this objective.

Our Effectiveness in Combating Modern Slavery and Human Trafficking

Wynn Mayfair uses the following key performance indicators to monitor the effectiveness of mitigating slavery and human trafficking taking place in any part of the business or supply chains:

- Completion of internal and external audits (including but not limited to reporting and follow up actions);
- Use of labour monitoring and payroll systems; and
- Level of communication and personal contact with the next link in the supply chain and their understanding of, and compliance with, Wynn Mayfair's expectations.
